SONG.

'Tis Spring' there's bloom upon the rose's leaf,
And sunshine in the sky;
And gladness in the brooklet's song
That ripples sweetly by.
And blithe the birdling tunes its throat,
And carols glad and high;
What reck I of his joyous note,
When lone and sad am I?

When Spring's soft breeze from forests near,
Comes fragrance-laden by,
Fanning the flowers of low parterre,
And tall boughs waving high;
Creating bloom and beauty where
It whistles sweetly by;
Yet brings no balm to soothe the care
Of one so lone as I.

The rippling wavelets kiss the shore
Ere flashing back they hie
To join the surging billows' roar,
In foam-capped revelry;
Reflecting on their billowy breast
The blue and cloudless sky—
Their rippling murmurs bring no rest
To one so lone as I.

E'en Spring can fail to glad the soul,
Though beaming in the sky,
When sorrow's waves still darkly roll,
And tears bedim the eye.
Thus when I hear the dovelet's note
At eve sung loud and high,
I think upon his listening mate,
While lone and sad am I.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE EMPEROR IN THE CRADLE.—Those affectionate mothers who wish to compare their dear little "Possible Presidents," with the baby-Emperor of France, may be interested to know that Nature has not endowed the future monarch with the "fatal gift of beauty." He has a large and ugly mouth, high cheek-bones, and a very dull complexion. Of course, he does not yet "speak French"—but he "takes notice" to a degree uncommon in a nine months' baby, is full of vigor and has a "sovereign" will of his own. The story goes that he made Papa Louis Napoleon run, the other day, to the great astonishment of the lookers-on at a distance. The Emperor was taking his little boy out for a promenade by the water-side—the baby in a small nursery vehicle drawn by goats. His Majesty amused himself with giving the little fellow a whip to play with, and it was presently laid on to the goats with such vigor that they started to run away; and, but for the exceeding activity with which Papa outran the goats, (odd enough to see an Emperor go-at it!) they would certainly have thrown their precious load into the water. He and the Empress are wondefully happy in this child and his precocious developments of character; and Eugenie is very much admired by all the mothers of France for her depth and warmth of maternal sentiment.

THE DUTCHMAN AND THE GOAT.—A good one occurred in Zanesville some time ago, when a Mr. Porter was landlord of the "Eagle," and "Dutch Pete" did the "clean thing," or honors of the stable. Pete and the horses had a large, as well as a very strong goat, for a companion and a disinfectant. At the time of our fun, the stable was occupied by a drove of mules. To the great annoyance of Pete, "Billy" (the goat) was sometimes in the habit of taking up his quarters in the hay-mow, which he reached by a pair of stairs. Mine host of the Eagle, and the usual crowd in the bar-room, were one day startled by Pete rushing in with his "Dutch up" and almost breathless, exclaiming at the top of his voice: "Meestir Borter! Meestir Borter! Billy he leaves or I leaves. I go up in de stable, and dere vas Billy. I say, Billy you go down! he say, Bah-baw-wa! and shust gits up on his hind feet. I say again Billy you go down, and strikes at him mit de bitch-fork, when de dam stink-num-sheep pitches into me and buts me bown stairs 'mung de mule-jacks, who all kicked me more hard den de goat. So, Mr. Borter, Billy he leaves or I leaves!"

"THE Book of Merrie Jests," the repository of more Joe Millerisms than Joe Miller or the Drawer ever dreamed of, relates, in the quaintness of a century or two ago, how that the wonderful Sir Digby Sommerville did keep a beautiful house full ever of brave company at his seat at Suffolk. At one time among his guests did happen a young gentleman from the Court, whose apparel was more garnished with lacings and gold than his brain with modesty or wit. One time going into the fields with his host they did espy a comely milkmaiden with her pail.

"Pr'ythee, Phillis," quoth the courtier, leering the while at the girl, "an' I give thee a kiss, wilt thou give me a drought of thy ware?"

"In the meadow," quoth she, "thou wilt find one ready to give thee milk, and glad of thy kiss, for she is of thy kind."

The court-gallant looked in the meadow, and espied a she-ass.

"So sharp, fair rustic," quoth he, angrily; "thou lookest as if thou couldest barely say boo to a goose."

"Yea, and that I can, and to a gander also." Whereat she cried out lustily, "Boo!"

The young man hastened away, and the worshipful Sir Digby did laugh heartily, and entertained his guests with the tale.

Hez's Account of a Country Picnic.

"You must know, gals," began Hez, "'bout the time that ar distinguished female, Misses Bloomer, made up her mind that petticoats, corsets, frocks, and them ere fixins, was hurtful to the lungs, the gals to hum—the place where I was raised—concluded they were teu, and such a tarnal 'citement as was kicked up mung the petticoats was a caushan to timidity of all qualities. Lots on 'em rigged 'emselves out in the Bloomer custom, as they called it, all complete, pantaloons and all—and sich another sight I never did see, when they paraded the streets. There was little fatty Brown, a right good little body, she got the Bloomer manny, teu, and sich a sight as she was! Golly! a hogshead cut in two and dressed up in petticoats could hold no comparison to her. And then there was Peggy Brooks, the shoemaker's wife—she had twins every year—she had the manny, teu, 'long with the rest, and gracious sakes! she looked even worse than fatty Brown. But Peggy was rather a sensible woman though, and finally concluded that the Bloomer wasn't becoming teu a female, as was a good many gals, though as hadn't cheek enough to come out in the pantaloons just to see how the thing would feel on a feller, as some one used to say. Fan, here, ——"

"Hush, Hez," interrupted Fanny, blushing a little, and seeming angry. But Hez appealed to the company and was allowed to proceed.

"Wall, now I shan't say anything about Fan, at present, I'll try to finish the story as soon as I can.

"The gals and fellers were gittin' up a grand flare up—a nick-picker, pick-nicker or——"

"Picknic," suggested one of the girls.

"Wall, a picnic. They was a gettin' up one of these arrangements, and a great time was expected. One of the gals what was a goin', had one of these ar Bloomer dresses—a real nice one—but she never wore it in the street—too modest for that. Wa'll she was agoin' to surprise the party—take her dress with her—steal off among the bushes, put it on, then come back and exhibit herself. This is the way she meant to surprise 'em, and wait bime by and you'll see if she did'nt do it handsomely, teu.

"The great day arrived. The gals looked as smiling as infants, and as sweet strawberries, and the fellers all looked 'ceedingly scrumpshus. The gal who intended to surprise the party, made a nice little bundle of her Bloomer and stowed it away in her bag. Bime by the party made a start for the place where the eatin' part of the arrangement was to take place, which was a quiet little spot in the woods where nobody could see their carrying on.

"Wa'll, they got there at last, and the gals commenced to spread the dishes on the grass and the fellers went to huggin' the gals—and the whole scene presented an animated picture. Wall, while all these things were goin' on, the gal with the Bloomer dress slips off among some trees and commenced fixin' herself up.—She darsent be gone long for fear they would suspect something. So she went to work in earnest, and in a few minutes she came boundin' mung the party like a young deer with dogs after it.

"You see she done this to surprise the party, and if you'd seen the caperin' of the gals and fellers, you'd believed she'd succeeded most beautifully

"As soon as she made her appearance among the party, the girls screeched like owls, and hid their faces with their aprons. The fellers, they hollered like fire—and some rolled on the ground among the dishes and fixins, just as if they had been eatin green apples, and they did'nt set well on their stomachs—and such a lively time as there was can't be imagined.—And all this time there stood the Bloomer gal, larfin' just as ef she would collapse. Bime by one of the gals got up and put for the bush—and purty soon the whole went just like a lot of sheep. This kinder took the gal by surprise herself—she did'nt reckon so much as this. She looked round and seeing nobody but the fellers, and they all hollerin' and caperin' like mad—and then she kinder sorter cast her eyes down to the ground, and as she did, such another screech as she let off, you would'nt think such another little body as her's was capable of containin', then she started off teu, arter the rest of the girls, and she did go! Jerusalem!—Telegraphs were nowhere.

"But, cousin Hez, what made her run so?" asked one of the girls.

"Well, now, gals, hold yourselves a minit, till I get to that part of the story. You see that the gal was in such a darned hurry to get on her rig that she forgot her pants! Fact—true as gospel. And sich another sight as she was—Christopher! There she was with nothing on but a little short frock-like, just big enough for a good size baby—her legs naked—presenting a picture worth looking at by any individual. And all I've got to say is, if half the gals can show as pretty and plump a pair of legs as Fan—"

Here Hez was cut off suddenly by a loud laugh from the whole party, and a good slap alongside the ears, administered by Fanny's little hand and the party separated, Fanny refusing to give Hez the kiss promised, and Hez declaring that he'd never tell her another story.—New York Dutchman.

BORN AGAIN.—A humorous old man fell in with an ignorant and rather impertinent young preacher, who proceeded to inform the old gentleman, in very positive terms, that he would never reach heaven unless he was born again, and added, with apparent solemnity, and no small self-conceit.—

"I have experienced that change, and now feel no anxiety."

"And have you been born again?" asked the gentleman.

"Yes, I trust I have."

"Well," said the old gentleman, eyeing him attentively, "I don't think it would hurt you a bit, young man, to be born once more!"

Exit preacher with a flea in his ear.

A dying Irishman was asked by his confessor whether he was prepared to renounce the devil and all his works. "Oh, your honor," said Pat, "don't ask me that; I'm going into a strange country, and I don't want to make meself enemies."

Dr. Elisha Kent Kane.

Dr. Kane was born in Philadelphia on the 3d of February, 1822. Even while a student at the college, he began to be a traveller, and made a geological excursion in the Blue Mountains of Virginia with Professor Rodgers. In 1843 he graduated at the Pennsylvania Medical University, and next entered the United States Navy as an assistant surgeon. He was appointed in his official capacity, in the first embassy to China from this country and while in this service, undertook an adventurous journey into the interior, visited the Philippines, Ceylon, and other islands, and even penetrated far into India. While in this latter country, he was let down into the crater of the Tael of Luzan, by a bamboo rope, from a projecting crag which rose above the scoria and debris some 200 feet. He accompanied to the Ladrone Islands, the celebrated Baron Loe, of Prussia, and while on this excursion they were attacked by the savages, and the Baron died from the exposure and severity of the encounter. Dr. Kane next went to Egypt and passed over the usual route. He was with the celebrated Berlin professor Lepsius, in his exploration of the tombs of the Pharaohs. As he was passing down the Nile, his boat was wrecked and he was also wounded in an encounter near Alexandria. Next, he made a thorough exploration of Greece, and returning home by way of Italy, France and England, after a few weeks of rest, set off on a cruise on the coast of Africa. Unfortunately for his physical constitution, he went into the interior of the country to inform himself about the mode of conducting the slave trade, and took the coast fever. He was sent home invalided, but after recovering somewhat, was sent across Mexico with despatches for Gen. Scott, in which expedition he encountered many novel adventures. On returning from this expedition, he took part in the coast survey, until he was on the 12th of May, 1850, recalled and sent on the Grinnell expedition to the Arctic regions under Lieut. De Haven, as surgeon, naturalist and historian. He was absent fifteen months, and on his reaching home, speedily originated and very ably carried out, his plan of exploring the coast of Greenland, and passing through Smith's Sound, towards the pole where he expected to find an open sea. With but 20 men and one small vessel, he spent two winters in the Arctic world, suffering from the extremities of the season and the service performed, more than the other Arctic navigators, and by this extraordinary enterprise, broke down a constitution, already sadly shattered and enfeebled.

It was only by the energy, prudence and remarkable power of foreseeing and providing against danger, that Dr. Kane's party was brought out alive by him in the third winter, after making a voyage of 1,800 miles, a great part however over and through the ice. The minutest details of this most remarkable expedition, are familiar to the public from the narrative of Dr. Kane, the preparation of which work, when he should have been at rest, was undoubtedly, one of the chief causes of his rapid decline.

Dr. Kane presents one of the most remarkable instances recorded of the powers of the mind triumphing over the physical system. He was from youth troubled with an organic disease of the heart. "In the Canton river he had the rice fever, the plague in Egypt, the yellow fever at Rio, the congestive at Puebla, and the African fever on the coast." Besides this formidable catalogue of specific diseases, he had received many severe wounds, passed through a variety of adventures sufficient to wear away an ordinary system, yet in spite of all this loss of physical power, he cheerfully and without hesitation went to the Arctic regions. With an enfeebled constitution the cold acted upon him far more powerfully than it did upon the common sailors; he had scurvy repeatedly, and though ever hopeful and in good spirits, suffered undoubtedly far more than he recorded. In his last voyage the scurvy acted on his lungs and he left for England some months since, in hope to recruit, and from thence to St. Thomas and next to Havana. As an adventurer he has had few rivals, and in his extraordinary powers of circumspection, and the provide against the future, which alone can preserve the Arctic Navigator had no equal. His power of recording the details of his adventures in an interesting and valuable mode, was not inferior to his ability as an explorer. Taking into view his youth, his varied experience and his remarkable travels, few men have ever appeared in history, who more fully deserve the character of hero and explorer, than ELISHA KENT KANE.

GOV. WRIGHT, of Indiana, has been in the habit of recommending himself to the graces of the Hoosier farmers by "spreading" on scientific agriculture. Illustrative of his practical knowledge of that important pursuit, the Lafayette Journal tells the following story:

Not many years ago his excellency, in company with another distinguished citizen of Indiana, was riding in the country. In passing a beautiful field of grain just beginning to head, the Governor reined up his horse and burst into rapturous admiration of the wheat.

Quoth Ned—"Governor how much will that wheat yield to the acre?"

"Oh, from 17 to 20 bushels."

"What kind of seed is that from Governor?"

"Common Winter. That is the best for this soil."

"You are the President of the Indiana Agricultural Society, are you not, Governor?"

"I am, sir."

"You are the author of an eloquent passage about the cultivation of roots and tops?"

"A mere trifle, Ned."

"Well, you are the only ass I ever saw who could not tell oats from wheat?"

An Irishman was asked at dinner whether he would take some apple pie? "Is it wholesome?" inquired Teddy. "To be sure it is; why isn't it?" "Because," said Teddy, "I once had an uncle that was killed with appleplexy, and sure enough I thought it was something of the same sort."

Truth crushed to earth, will rise again.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 10, 1857.

Attention! Mariposians!

We publish in another column a call for a Wagon Road Convention, to be held at Mokelumne Hill on the 2d of May.—Our readers will observe that the call is signed by the Representatives from Mariposa, Merced, Tulare and Frezno counties.

The importance of some prompt action being taken by the citizens of the Southern mining district in this matter, cannot be overrated. It has been estimated that the emigration from the Atlantic States, during the coming season, will exceed fifty thousand; most of which is made up—not of mere fortune-hunters—but of industrious men, who are coming to locate permanently in the agricultural and mining districts. Just the kind of population that California needs.

The oldest route from Carson Valley across the Sierra Nevada, has its terminus in the Sacramento valley, but it is a well known fact that with a small outlay of capital, a much better, safer and more expeditious road can be constructed, leading into the San Joaquin valley by what is at present known as the Big Tree route.

A movement of this kind was attempted some time ago. Subscriptions were solicited in some two or three of the counties interested. The people of Stockton subscribed quite liberally, as did the citizens of Murphy's and its vicinity. Some work was done on the road, which, although at a trifling cost, has been of considerable service. Our readers can judge of the facilities which this route possesses for a good wagon road, from the fact that loaded teams have already come over the whole distance from Carson's valley to Murphy's—in one instance a four mule team with 2,700 pounds freight.

There is already a good stage road from the Big Tree to Murphy's Camp, from which place, facilities for travel exist not only in the direction of the San Joaquin valley, but by the way of Sonora, in a more direct course to our own immediate neighborhood. In the event of this route becoming the favorite one—which with a little well directed energy on the part of the inhabitants of the southern counties, it is bound to become—the advantages which would accrue to this portion of California will be realized, not in the far distant future, but during the year of grace 1857. There is no doubt that the people of the northern counties will endeavor to throw every possible obstacle in the way of this project, as the diversion of travel from the old route is not calculated to be of advantage to them.

A correspondent of the San Joaquin Republican thinks there is something wrong in reference to the calling of the Convention at Mokelumne Hill, whose interest, together with that of the people of Amador, lies in a different direction.—There are some pretty strong grounds for the writer's view of the subject; and to avoid any possible chance of foul play, it is highly necessary for the southern counties to be well represented. The number of delegates to be sent from each county, should be in proportion to its representation. The Republican suggests that the representation be doubled, which would entitle Mariposa, Merced, Tulare and Frezno, jointly, to eight delegates. The enterprise is, in our opinion, worthy the attention of all who feel themselves identified with the interest of this, or any of the adjacent counties.

PERSONAL.—We have had the pleasure during the present week, of receiving occasional calls from Mr. H. C. PATRICK of the San Joaquin Republican. Mr. Patrick has been long and favorably known as an efficient member of the editorial corps of the Republican. This is his first visit to this portion of Mariposa county.

The Weekly San Joaquin Republican, we regard as one of the best journals in the State of California. People who are desirous of subscribing for the paper, would do well to apply personally to Mr. Patrick, who will probably remain in Mariposa for several days.

FAILURE OF THE PACIFIC EXPRESS.—We learn by our exchanges that attachments have been levied upon this Company in San Francisco and Sacramento, and that their offices in the above places are in possession of the Sheriff. The amount of their liabilities, which has been the immediate cause of their failure, we understand will not exceed $10,000. We regret to hear of the failure of this Company, to whom we have been largely indebted for Express favors.

STABBING.—A Frenchman by the name of Pekier was stabbed on Sunday last by a countryman of his, one Monsieur Paris, on Sherlock's Flat. At the last accounts, the wounded man was thought to be in a very critical situation. We have not learned the cause of the affray.

Legislative.

Through the irregularity of our exchanges, we are unable to give our readers any intelligence from the seat of the "assembled wisdom" of the State of California.

At the last accounts, a body of this description was still in existence in the Capitol. Several important measures are on the stocks, but whether the two branches of this august body will agree on any of them, is a matter of uncertainty. The Senate pulls one way—the Assembly another—while the Governor is a team by himself.

Among the bills which are in an embryo state, are the Stamp Act and the bill for reducing the salaries of some of the county Judges, including our own. This latter contemplates cutting down the salary from $5,000 to $3,000.

The Governor has approved the Sacramento Bridge bill, causing any amount of grumbling from the Sacramento people.

On the 4th inst., Ned McGowan, the distinguished fugitive, paid a visit to both branches of the Legislature, seating himself among the members with becoming dignity.

EXPRESS FAVORS.—By our exchanges we learn that J. W. Sullivan, the enterprising Newspaper and Periodical agent, chartered a steamer for the express purpose of forwarding Atlantic papers to the interior towns. Through some cause we did not receive any Atlantic news by the Expresses until two days after the arrival of the mail, when we were placed in possession of two bundles of papers—one from Sullivan and the other from the "Noisey Carrier's" establishment. This delay, together with the fact of the irregularity with which we receive our exchanges, shows that there is something wrong in some quarter; where, we are not prepared to say. By the last mail we received four whole newspapers, and in the course of a week or two, we shall be prepared to feel very grateful for even receiving one.

For the Atlantic news we furnished our readers last week, we were indebted to a big dollar, which happened to be laying loose about, and which we invested in the stock in trade of Dutch Charley, who beat the mail by four or five hours, on an old broken down mustang.

MINING ON PHILLIPS' FLAT.—The accounts we have received of the mining operations in this locality, are of the most flattering description. Miners have been holding on to claims for three or four years, being unable to work them to advantage on account of the scarcity of water until about a year ago, when a supply was obtained by the introduction of Holt's ditch. Since that time, the miners have been engaged in getting into their claims, and are now beginning to work to advantage. Among the claims which are paying good wages at present, we hear that Buck & Co. are making from five to seven dollars to the hand. Floyd & Co. from $8 to $10, and Howard & Co. from $12 to $14.

From a letter we received from a resident of Sherlock's, we make the following extract:

"SHERLOCK'S, April 7, 1857.

"The miners about here are generally doing well. There is still a sufficient quantity of water to supply most of the working population.

I think that the amount of gold taken out in this vicinity during the past winter, will compare favorably with the yield of either of the two or three preceding seasons. There have been no very big strikes made, but every one has been making good wages.—Among those who are doing well at present, are Cleaver & Co., on White's Flat; Sullivan & Wilcox, on Mullen's Gulch, and Weston & Marshall, on the creek.

Quite a rich quartz vein has been lately discovered by Mr. Foran, which, from the appearance of a specimen exhibited by the finder, will undoubtedly prove to be extremely rich. Mr. F. is an old and esteemed resident of this place, and his good fortune is a general matter of rejoicing among the people here.

Yours, &c., X. Y. Z.

QUARTZ DISCOVERY.—We have been informed that another rich lode of quartz has recently been discovered in the vicinity of Gentry's Gulch, by Lovely Rogers. For richness, it is represented as surpassing the one discovered by him a few months ago.

LYNCHING.—In Butte county recently, four men were arrested for shooting and robbing Chinamen, and placed in the custody of the constable at Bangor, from whom they effected their escape and were taken and three of them executed. The Marysville Express gives the following particulars in regard to the affair:

"On Thursday morning, sometime between the hours of two and four o'clock, Ferguson, one of the four, succeeded in withdrawing his hands from the handcuffs, after which he liberated the rest.—They then possessed themselves of the constable's pistol—in what manner we did not learn—and attempted to make their escape. The alarm was promptly given, and the people pursued, and soon overtook and arrested them. Ferguson, the youngest of the party, turned State's evidence, and was protected. The other three, George Ringold, Geo. N. Johnson, and S. R. Lake, were hung where they were taken. Mr. Mallon informs us that a coroner's jury had been called, and the verdict was, "found hung to an oak tree,"—but the parties engaged in the hanging were unknown to the jury. They were all young men, neither supposed to be over twenty-four years of age."

TOO TRUE.—The rumored death of Dr. Kane, says the Sierra Citizen, which came by the last steamer, proves too true. The adventurous navigator has embarked upon his last voyage. He has found Sir John Franklin!

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Robert Scott, a son of the Rev. W. A. Scott, of Calvary church, San Francisco, has been appionted to a Lieutenancy in the Artillery Service of the U. S. Army.

Destructive Conflagration at Oroville.

We extract the following from the Telegraphic despatches to the San Joaquin Republican, dated Oroville, 6th inst:

This evening, at half-past five o'clock, a fire broke out in the back part of the Theatre, at this place, and in an instant the whole building was in flames. The fire soon extended to the adjoining buildings, and at one time it was thought the whole town would be destroyed. Fortunately not a breath of air was stirring; had there been, we should have had to chronicle another total destruction of a town. As it was, however, and through the exertions of our noble firemen, who did signal service, a credit to themselves and the town, the fire was confined to one square, all the buildings on which were destroyed.

The San Francisco Minstrels who played here last night and were to play to-night, lost everything they had, including all their valuable instruments, wardrobe, &c. They appear with white faces, at Musical Hall, to-night. Loss about 50,000 dollars.

SUICIDE.—Thomas Wright, Jr., a lawyer of San Francisco, committed suicide on Saturday night last, by shooting himself with a pistol. He had been afflicted with insanity for several days previous.—S. J. Republican.

ARRESTED FOR SWINDLING.—I. M. Crowell and C. M. Sears, flour merchants in Front street, San Francisco, were arrested on Saturday night on several charges of swindling and obtaining goods under false pretences.—Ib.

From Oregon.

The steamer Columbia arrived in San Francisco on the morning of the 1st inst., bringing dates from Portland, Oregon, to March 25th. We take the following from the Pacific of the 3d inst:

The steamer Portland was lost on the 17th ult., in consequence of going over the Willamette Falls. Two men were drowned, who were an board at the time. Loss, $8,000

The weather continues very wet and disagreeable.

The Indians are getting tired of fighting Uncle Sam, and are returning to their old hunting grounds. No fears are entertained of any hostilities from them at present.

MINING.—Reports from the Colville mines seem to indicate that there is gold in abundance. The miners seem to have realized a fine harvest the past fall and winter. There are also reports of gold being found in paying quantities this side of Colville and nearer the Dalles.

FROM TEHUANTEPEC—THE ROAD CUT THROUGH.—We are indebted to Mr. J. A. Pleasants, U. S. Consul at Minatitlan, for interesting intelligence from Tehuantepec to the 24th Jan. The road had been cut through and the contract, to expire on the 5th Feb., saved. Wagons had already passed over it. The work was not entirely complete, but it was thought a full line of stages, for the perfect accommodation of the public, would be in operation by the first of May or June, or first of July at farthest. The working force during the month of January was 300 men and upwards, assisted by a large number of natives. Mr. Pleasants left Manatitlan the 27th Jan., and overland, on horseback, to Vera Cruz, a distance of 130 miles, thence to this city in the Narcissa, arrived last evening. At Vera Cruz he saw letters from a reliable source on the Isthmus confirmatory of the above. There is nothing later from Southern Mexico.—New Orleans Picayune.

LEGISLATURE.—The Assembly Committee on Accounts and Expenditures made a long report the 27th, relative to the financial affairs of the State. It shows that when Bates resigned, there should have been $124,278,17 in the Treasury, whereas there was only $5,908,25, leaving a deficiency in cash of $48,369.92. Upon the gold dust which Bates said had gone to the Mint, Wells, Fargo & Co., had paid him 9,000; when assayed, however, says the Sacramento Age, it amounted to only $8,187. The outstanding warrants at the present time amount to $408,095, 46; and the bonds issued under funding acts to $3,178,800—being $45,800 less than was reported by the Controller. For interest and exchanges $428,280 had been paid at various times, being $29,423,76 more than was required. Since Bates resigned, $106,522,39 have been received into the Treasury, and $87,124,68 paid out, leaving now on hand $19,387,71.—Stockton Argus.

MURDERER ARRESTED.—The San Andreas Independent of the 4th inst says:

About ten days ago, Deputy Sheriff B. K. Thorne arrested John Phillips, at Tunnel Hill, near San Antonio camp.—Phillips killed a Mexican named Moralles, in '54, at San Antonio, by chopping him in the head with an axe. Since that time he has not been seen until the day of his arrest, when he passed through San Antonio on his way to Tunnel Hill, and was recognised by Mr. Vickers, who immediately informed Mr. Thorne of his whereabouts, and assisted in making the arrest. Phillips is very much disfigured since he left, having lost an eye. He denied his name when he was arrested.

MAN KILLED AT COULTERVILLE.—We have been informed by Mr SCOTT, mail carrier between this place and Sonora, that a quarrel arose yesterday between two men whose names are Hobiler and Stephens, in which the former was shot through the body and instantly killed. The difficulty orignated about a water privilege for mining purposes. Stephens is now under arrest.

A SAD CASE.—A woman was found in a suffering condition by the Police of San Francisco, on Wednesday in a shanty on Sacramento street, near the wharf. She says she had been deserted by her husband whose name is Becker, a man formerly connected with Rowe's circus. This is a sad case, as she was left destitute and alone, and is on the point of confinement. She is now, however, removed from the miserable place in which she was found and is properly cared for.—Argus.

The Boston Post says that Resetta Armstead, a negro girl, who was claimed as a fugitive slave in Columbus, Ohio, about nine months ago, but was protected and shielded by the Republicans of that city, has rewarded their care and attention by presenting to them a molasses-colored infant.

Local Items.

We notice that some public spirited individuals are engaged in carting gravel and filling up the holes and gutters on Main street—a commendable improvement, which will be duly appreciated by all night pedestrians, and especially by those who are in the habit of toting bricks in their hats. During the wet season there is no difficulty in finding a soft place to fall on—but now that the ground is getting dry and hard the operation is becoming somewhat dangerous.

The road in the neighborhood of the Court House is also undergoing some much needed repairs, for which mule drivers and teamsters generally will feel duly grateful. There might be a considerable amount of labor expended, to good advantage, in grading that portion of Bullion street.

We would also call the attention of the admirers of improvement, as well as the connoisieurs of mechanical arts, to the repairing of the steps in front of the Gazette office, for which we are indebted to the industry and skill of Hon. E. Burke, of the 13th Judicial District. We would recommend all those who have need of the services of a good carpenter to apply to the Judge, who will cheerfully attend to anything pertaining to that branch of his profession. Particular attention paid to dilapidated stairways.

Orders left at this office will be promptly attended to.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—An affray occurred on Missouri Gulch, on Wednesday last, between two men named Breen and Mallon, in which the latter received a shot from a revolver in the hands of the former. We understand there had been some quarreling between the parties previous to the shooting. Mallon had on several occasions threatened to treat Breen to a thrashing, and on the morning of the occurrence had followed him for the purpose, as we are informed, of putting his threats into execution. They had a short struggle, which resulted in Mallon receiving a slight flesh wound as above related. Breen immediately came to town and delivered himself into the hands of the authorities.

P. S. Since the above was in type, we learn that Breen effected his escape from the Sheriff, who had accompanied him to McDermott's store, for the purpose of procuring bail. He stepped out of sight on pretence of holding a conversation with a friend relative to some money matter, and took that opportunity to take leg bail.—Up to the time of our paper going to press he had not been retaken.

FALL OF LAGER.—On Monday last, the horse attached to the Lager Beer wagon of Picquet & Co.'s establishment, took fright near the corner of Seventh and Bullion streets, and running at a 2.40 rate, turned the corner mit the Methodist Church, and fetched up against some obstacle in front of Barber's stable, capsizing the wagon, spilling the freight, and damaging things generally. The wagon can be repaired, but there is no mending spilt lager.

THE WEATHER.—During the present week the heat has, we think, exceeded that of any previous April weather we have ever witnessed. On Wednesday the thermometer stood at 86 degs., in the shade, and a gentleman from Hornitas informs us that in that town it stood at 98 in the shade. Wonder if this is only a foretaste of what we are to have in midsummer? If so, prepare for a general roasting in July.

Court of Sessions.

The April term of this Court commenced on Monday last, Hon. J. M. BONDURANT presiding, J. S. WATTS and A. F. WASHBURN, Esqrs., Associate Judges. The Grand Jury, which closed its labors on Tuesday evening, was composed of the following named gentlemen: William Prescott, J. G. Read, James McCrackin, J. O. Lovejoy, S. Lord, James Poe, R. A. Moore, John McGrann, J. M. McKinney, James Pettit, John Pettit, E. Rollins, M. W. Quick, G. McCoy, C. H. Lloyd, James McVicker, M. Mann, H. McErlane, R. A. Potter But a small amount of business came before them during their session.

We are indebted to the politeness of W. A. Guard, County Clerk, for the subjoined Report of the Committee appointed to inspect the Hospital and Jail:

To the Foreman and Members of the Grand Jury, for the April Term, 1857:

The Committee appointed to inspect the County Jail and hospital, respectfully submit the following Report: We find the Jail in good order—everything connected therewith possessing a neat, clean, and comfortable appearance; and a concurrence on the part of the prisoners that their wants are fully attended to; that their food is clean, well cooked and palateable, and that they receive due attention on the part of the officers connected with the Jail. The number of prisoners is two.

Much credit is due Doctors Clarke & Hubbell for the comfortable and tidy appearance of the County Hospital There are ample accommodations for a number of invalids; and from the appearance of the different appartments of this Institution, the Committee would judge that no pains are spared on the part of the proprietors to promote the recovery of persons coming under their care. They are at present enlarging the main building, which will make an addition of about one third of the present room.

Written for the Mariposa Gazette.

Theatricals in Lagerville.

FROM THE "SUGGS" PAPERS.

Lagerville is a quiet, unpretending mining town of the one-horse description, situated—no matter where. Its inhabitants are sort o' mixed—being made up of Pikers, Downeasters, Hoosiers, Bowery boys, and F. F. V.'s, besides "a sprinkling" of the furrin' element. Occupations numerous and varied—from "honest miner" down to loafer—of which latter class there are several distinct species. From its retired locality and inland situation, events which, in more populous places would be looked upon as common place, form grand epochs in the history of Lagerville. The day that the first stove-pipe hat was seen within its limits, is still well remembered by its oldest inhabitant—having been made a note of in an Almanac of that date, by the enterprising proprietor of a grocery, then the only building of note in the place. The proprietor of the hat was an object of curiosity and suspicion while he stopped, but as he was civil to everybody—payed for his lodging and meals, and treated all hands, he was allowed to leave—and as nobody missed any animals, he was'nt followed or molested on the road. At a still later date, even down to the present time, although stove-pipe hats are no longer a novelty, and "biled shirts and store clothes," are sported by the "commonest kind" of citizens, yet Lagerville is a quiet country place, and as sich, liable to be thrown into a state of undue excitement by anything out of the ordinary course of human events. A ball produces a sensation—a dog fight gathers a big crowd—an elopement furnishes food for a month's gossip, besides a choice morsel for local items—a wedding brings out the Calithumpians, and causes a "few-roar"—while anything in the shape of a traveling exhibition, from Lee & Marshall's circus to the last humbug, actually sets people crazy. What wonder then that "expectation stood on tiptoe," when the announcement was made that "Professor Hawsphly, with his justly celebrated and world-renowned troupe, who had been the admiration of the citizens of Stockton, San Francisco and the 'rest of mankind'—would entertain the citizens of Lagerville on a certain evening, in a certain month, at a place and hour designated on the bills." Of course everybody went, who could raise ticket money, and

> Who's here so poor he cannot raise a peso?
> If there is one, let him come out and say so.

It is the natural inclination of humanity to follow the crowd, and notwithstanding the efforts of philanthropic preachers, people are still inclined to avoid the narrow path, "with here and there a traveler."

Partaking of this common human failing, your writing medium—spiritually speaking—corporally joined the "living tide," which was setting in a southerly direction down Main street, (so called, because it's the only one in the place.)

After sundry slips, caused by the uncertain nature of the pavement, I made the trip without any serious accidents, and found myself marching up the steps of the —— building to the tune of "Jordan is a hard road to travel." Was confronted at the door by a ferocious looking individual, who, in a chilling stage whisper, demanded my ticket and benevolently allowed me to pass. Congratulated myself on being in good season—made tracks for a front seat—sagacious specimen of young America informed me the front seats were reserved for ladies—heard symptoms of a row on the sidewalk below followed by a grand rush up the steps—communicative gent from down-east informed me that the boys were coming—expected to see a crowd of juveniles enter, and was surprised that their ages ranged all the way from sweet sixteen to sour sixty. Orchestra commenced tuning up—first fiddler attempted a Schottish, but fell out with the second, who was doing his best on the "Arkansaw Traveler"—man with a clarionet was endeavoring to effect a compromise by playing a tune of his own composition. Having been entranced by the "concord of sweet sounds," I had remained oblivious to the fact that the audience was getting thick. A premonitory twinge of a refractory corn, reminded me that a man of two hundred pounds weight was trying to make an impression on my pedal extremities—civilly requested him to "git up and git," which, after due deliberation, he complied with. Then observed for the first time who my neighbors were—found myself flanked on one side by a gentleman from Africa, and on the other, by a John Chinaman—might have endured the "cul-led pusson," but John was too much for me—concluded to vacate the premises—saw some vacant seats on an elevated structure of rough plank, called, by way of compliment, a gallery—arose for the purpose of taking a chance among its occupants, and was greeted with a chorus of yells from the boys aforesaid—(don't know, by the way, whether they were the Bowery boys, or Joe Bowers' boys)—spotted one fellow who had evidently been in the shell-fish business, and accustomed to crying "clams! clams! ten cents a peck," making use of his powerful lungs in calling out "boots! boots!"—came to the conclusion that he was some itinerant boot-black, who took that method of soliciting employment—politely informed him that mine had been attended to by a member of his profession, only a shade or two darker than himself—but that in future he should have my patronage.

By this time the boys in the gallery, who had amused themselves by smoking bad cigars, were beginning to manifest their impatience by stamping, whistling, and cries of "hist der rag," "bring 'em out," varied with occasional complimentary remarks, directed to unfortunate individuals who, like myself, had been forced by an outside pressure to change seats. The noise was suddenly hushed by the ting-a-ling of the bell—the audience held their breath—the orchestra "dried up," and the curtain slid, exposing to view the two leading characters in the "laughable Farce" of the "Loan of a Lover"—being one of the only two "laughable farces" ever played in the mines. The other is known as the "Swiss Cottage," and is generally played on

"Positively the last night, and by particular request."

Judge of my surprise when I discovered that the lover and the loved were represented by two "infant prodigies," about the size of Christmas dolls. "Trundle-bed stuff," was my involuntary exclamation, followed by cries from the gallery of "put him out, put him out." Gent from down-east chimed in with "put him out." Having fortified myself with several glasses of the staple product of the place, (lager beer), and feeling uncommonly brave, I defiantly told them to "pitch in and put him out, if they felt like trying it." "Yeas," responded the gentleman from down-east, "better pitch in and put him out if yer feel like tryin' on it."—The play went on, and to my great relief nobody made any demonstration of "tryin' on it"—by the help of a good constitution, survived the laughable farce, when after a short intermission, the manager informed us that Mademoiselles, "Wretched and Wurser"—twin prodigies, (or prodigious twins,)—would perform some astonishing pirrouetting. A ring of the bell—an excruciating scrape on the fiddle—a hi yi from the boys, and out came the "big infants" in shorts and tights.—Just barely had got a glimpse of their features, &c., when one, two, three, commenced popping up heads, with "hats to fit," faster than I could count, and I had to content myself with hearing and not seeing, during that part of the programme. Gentleman from Pike, "dog-derned his skin," and said he'd be "dog-gone if he coud git ter see a consarned thing."—Superanuated supernumerary came out with a *curt*ailed version of "old dog tray," which brought down the gallery, and drew an audible whine from an innocent rat-terrier that had crept up close to the foot-lights—adult female in disguise, read "Katy Dawling" from a 12 by 14 piece of pasteboard—"supe" made his second appearance, as a dock loafer, and sung a smutty doggerel about his sister—gent from down-east ejaculated "did you ever"—"twin uglies" came out in another series of ground and lofty tumbling—gentleman from Pike having resolved to "git ter see" something, had elbowed his way down to the front—manager informed us us that the evening's entertainment would close with the other "laughable farce" of the Swiss Cottage, and that "owing to the solicitations of many of the citizens of Lagerville, they would give an entertainment on the following evening, on which occasion they would present an entire change of performance." "Trundle-bed stuff" made another grand entree as Swiss cottagers—the boys cheered again—gent from down-east said it was "fust rate"—individual from Pike "dog-goned, dog-derned and dog-fetched" himself—the boys made a grand scramble for the door, and the audience generally dispersed. The change in the programme on the following evening, was made by substituting 'Loan of a Lover' for 'Swiss Cottage,' and vice versa—a very convenient method, simply requiring the small bills to be changed "cend for cend."

If this should meet the eye of Mr. Collins, he will please call or send an order for its delivery, or the same will be returned to the U. S. Pension Office. Mr. C was a seaman on the U. S. Ships Columbus and Ohio, during the Mexican War. ☜t

☞ DR. L. J. CZAPKAY.—We would direct the especial attention of Invalids to the perusal of Dr. L. J. Czapkay's advertisement; to be found in another column of this paper, to place the services of a learned and experienced Physician within their reach. So much ill has been inflicted on the human family from the pernicious and ignorant practices of empirics, that it seems as if we were fulfilling a bounden duty to make known where judicious relief can be obtained. To those unfortunate enough to suffer from the effects of sexual or private diseases, or their ill-treatment, we cheerfully commend Dr. L. J. Czapkay as a man of rare scientific and medical acquirements—possessing all the requirements, from long experience and acknowledged skill, for the successful practice of his profession. Having made sexual complaints his especial study, like the celebrated Ricord, of Paris, he is enabled to guarantee a speedy and permanent cure in all cases of private or chronic disease, whether the effect of contagion, self abuse, or loss of virility, and in order that patients at a distance may avail themselves of his advice, free consultation by letter is open to them. The knowledge we have of the numerous cures he has effected, some of which were of long standing, leads us to place much faith in Dr. C.'s efficacy, and commend him to the confidence of those in ill-health. f13 3m

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
GRAND MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE.

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.
Established for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the suppression of quackery.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and late Lecturer on diseases of Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children has opened his Institute for the cure of all forms of private diseases, such as syphilis, gonorrhœa, nocturnal emissions, and all the consequences of self abuse. In the first stages of syphilitic or gonorhœal diseases, he guarantees a cure in a few days, without inconvenience to the patient or hindrance to his business. When a patient, by neglect or improper treatment, has developed the symptoms of secondary syphilis, such as buboes, or painful swellings of the groins, or ulcers in the throat or nose, which if not checked, destroy the soft parts and cause the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer heidous to behold; or when splotches and pimples break out upon the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to predispose to consumption or constitutional disease, the Doctor guarantees a cure or asks no compensation.

In rheumatism, chronic or acute, in dysentery or diarrhœa, he has safe and effectual remedies. For the treatment of the consequences of self-abuse, such as nocturnal emissions, nervousness, timidity, headache, pains in the back and limbs, with general weakness, loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, and a feeling of weariness of life, with the nervous system so excitable that slight noises shock or startle the patient, making his existence miserable. For the above maladies the Doctor will guarantee a cure or ask no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost them nothing, and may be much to their advantage.

A Tribute to Merited Worth.

☞ A TESTIMONIAL RICHLY MERITED.—The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by the finer feelings of the heart, are oasis in the life of those who sacrifice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortality. Empiricism floods the columns of our press with fraudulent and fictitious letters; singing peans to the worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Below we append a letter from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off this mortal coil;" who looked forward to his dissolution with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skillful physician has restored him to his former health. Relieved from his terrible situation, and impelled by gratitude, he makes known his case and remedial agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its publicity; and it is given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician of whom scores of like cases can be cited:
CERTIFICATE.
The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicines would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins; the weakness of my limbs; the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement; the misanthropy and evil forebodings; the self-distrust and want of confidence in others; the incapability to study, and want of resolution; the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand.
With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured, by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected. B. F. FILLMORE.
State of California, County of San Francisco. Subscribed and sworn before me, this 17th day of April, 1856. (Signed) JOHN MIDDLETON, [L. s.]
Notary Public.
A CARD.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public, a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from some cause unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the failures which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of a physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render me assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for all his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook the case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

GREAT BLESSING TO MANKIND!—Innocent but potent! Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilactic um, (self-disinfecting agent,) a sure preventive against gonorrhœal and syphilitic diseases, and an unsurpassed remedy for venerial, scrofulous, gangrenous and cancerous ulcers, fœtid discharges from the vagina, uterus and urethra, and all cutaneous eruptions and diseases. As innoculation is a preventive against small-pox, so is Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum a preventive against syphilitic and gonorrhœal diseases. Although harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophilacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient to use, being used as a soap. Price $5. For sale at Dr. Czapkay's Private Medical and Surgical Institute, Sacramento Street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.
All orders must be addressed to L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.

J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success. All consultations, (by letter or otherwise) free. Address L. J. Czapkay, M.
